PEACE PUBLIC SCHOOL
Ferozepur Road, Ludhiana

"Be the change that you wish to see in the world". In the present scenario when staying at home has become the nexus of everything, we have launched the E-Magazine of Peace Public School. Nothing lasts forever. Keep your face to the sunshine and you will never see a shadow. Stay happy and safe at your home, save lives and keep the optimism upsurging.

An Eco-Friendly Move – Going Green

To further the motive of Eco-friendliness and advocate ways to save the imperative resources, Peace Public School has taken steps towards "Turning Green".

The state-of-the-art technology is being used to champion the cause. A Sewage Water Treatment Plant has been installed to cater to the increasing needs of water for nurturing the nature and save this vital resource from depleting further. The school has also been instrumental in saving the much needed power by installing 100 kW Solar panels which will cap the abundant resource. The inauguration of this stupendous Solar Plant was done on 25 Jan. 2020. This noble project will also be providing extra power backup to the Electricity Department. Another magnanimous venture is the installation of Rain Water Harvesting Plant which will benefit in reducing the stress on gradually dwindling water table. Being a bedrock establishment, Peace Public School wants to lead by example to make the city a better place to live.

We are delighted to announce the launch of 'Voice of Peace' – the school broadcasting station. This broadcasting system has been setup to provide an exciting and engaging medium for students to develop their communications skills.

Voice of Peace will offer a platform for students to discuss the issues that matter to them in a non-confrontational format. Whether it is discussing important issues or sharing the music they love, the broadcasting station will give the students a confident voice within the school.

Planning and presenting everyday shows will require a great deal of team work. Students will be writing scripts, preparing talk shows and managing time hence developing real world skills.

We hope that every student of the school benefits from this new project. It is just the beginning of great things to come...

Helen Keller

Helen Keller was born on June 27, 1880 in Tuscumbia, Alabama. She was an American author, lecturer and a political activist. When she was 19 months old, she got very ill. The illness left her both ill and blind. Anne Sullivan arrived at Keller's house on March 5, 1887, a day Keller would forever remember. She immediately began to teach Helen to communicate by spelling words into her hand, beginning with "d-o-l-l" for the doll that she had brought Keller as a present. Helen was viewed as isolated but was very in touch with the outside world. She was able to enjoy music by feeling the beat and she was able to have a strong connection with animals through touch. She was delayed at picking up language, but that did not stop her from having a voice. She went on to become a world-famous speaker and author. She is remembered as an advocate for people with disabilities, amid numerous other causes. The deaf community was widely impacted by her. She travelled to twenty five different countries giving motivational speeches about Deaf people's conditions. At age 22, Helen Keller published her autobiography, The Story of My Life (1903), with help from Sullivan and Sullivan's husband, John Macy. It recounts the story of her life up to age 21 and was written during her time in college. She suffered a series of strokes in 1961 and spent the last years of her life at her home. She died in her sleep on June 1, 1968.

We should all face our obstacles in life and do our best to overcome them.

Definition of Me

Like a fish in blue ocean deep,
Like a star burning bright in the space infinite,
In the dense forest green,
Found my calling, I have.
Like a drop in the ocean vast,
Each so unique and so different,
Unique like me, only I am.
To live up to someone,
Not my aim it is,
To find my soul, but it is.

Samarjeet Singh

God

God is one,
He is friend of everyone
Even who is blind
Can meet Him any time
He is the God,
Who is my friend
I can forget everything
But not Him.
He is lover of everyone
Of poor, rich, lame and blind
And will always bless you
In a difficult time
He is the most powerful
Savior of the world
He knows everything
And we must not forget Him.

Hiya Jain

Love

Love – A magical word to say,
But like a poison to have.
Sorry to all those lovers
Who are reading this extract. but this is the truth, this is the fact it acts extremely slow
And just brainwashes you
You are left with nothing, Except a word called 'Love'
That you feel, is your life
But it kills you every time, you think about that sharp knife
It is not that I have never fallen in love,
I had fallen & the above lines are its aftermath
Love has no guarantee,
But when we wake up in the morning, we think about it
Like it is our bed tea
I warn you all, to never commit this sin
Because it is a magical word to say,
But like a poison to have.

Nandita Sharma

WHAT IS Time??
Time is life,
Which is to be lived.
Time is precious,
Which is to be played.
Time is dream,
Which is to be fulfilled.
Time is past,
Which is to be guided
Time is present,
Which is to be enjoyed
Time is future,
Which is to be planned
Time is mine,
Time is yours,
Which is to be endured

Dreams

When the night falls,
Dreams start to call Like a mellifluous rustling of distant leaves
Teaching us a lesson of how to believe
When it seems the magic is slipping away
Waiting it to revive on a special day Believe in what your heart is saying
Listen to the music the heart is playing
There is no time to waste
There is so much to be saying
Believe and speak what u feel inside
Give your dreams the wings to fly

Broken Mind Fly

A great poem can make
a broken mind fly,
it can make it touch the sky.
A poem helps the broken mate, and opens that growth gate.
A great poem can make
a broken mind fly,
it can make it touch the sky.
A flying mind is an asset for the creators, and is a slap on the face of the haters.
A good poem can make a broken mind recover, it can make all the bruises cover.
A good poem can make
a broken mind fly,
it can make it touch the sky.
A good poem can transform a broken mind into a balance sheet,
With only the profits raising from the feet.
A broken mind is a set of injuries,
A good poem can do the magic,
Which can perform all the surgeries.
A great poem can make
a broken mind fly,
it can make it touch the sky.

The Will To Win...

If you want a thing bad enough
To go out and fight for it,
Work day and night for it, Give up your time and your peace and your sleep for it, if only desire of it Makes you quite mad enough,
Never to tire of it,
Makes you hold all other things tawdry and cheap for it
If life seems all empty and useless without it
And all that you scheme and you dream is about it,
If gladly you'll sweat for it, fret for it, Plan for it,
Lose all your terror of God or man for it,
If you'll simply go after that thing that you want.
With all your capacity, strength and sagacity,
Faith, hope and confidence, stern pertinacity,
If neither cold, poverty, famished and gaunt,
Nor sickness nor pain of body or brain
Can turn you away from the thing that you want,
If dogged and grim you besiege and beset it,
You'll get it!

Among the Trees

Darling, Don't you see,
We are saplings.
Among the trees.
We need to tread slowly,
Through the dips and the hills,
Through the mountains so high,
And cannons so deep,
As we are saplings,
Among the trees,
We will thrive to exist,
Through the storms and the rain
Through the breeze that touches us,
And the cuts that cause pain.
Oh! But do tread slowly
No matter what the change
we are saplings
among the trees
