"Every child has a different learning style and pace. Each child is unique, not only capable of learning but also capable of succeeding."

— Robert John Meehan

Curricular and co-curricular activities are an essential part of learning. They are the lifeblood of the learning process. As the children grow and actively participate in such activities, they are developing the cognitive, socio-emotional and physical skills, which they need to take them towards a successful adulthood.

Keeping in mind this theory, our school meticulously planned the academic year (2017-18) for all the students to make their learning creative and innovative in order to enhance their skills and personalities. Numerous activities conducted in school gave a platform for the students to encounter their inhibitions and to come forward confidently by being active not only in studies but also in the school's co-curricular activities. Our Newsletter for this session aims in showcasing a glimpse of the students' achievements & accomplishments. All the activities conducted in school helped the students to learn creatively and instill confidence in them by enhancing their knowledge, keeping in mind their interest and capabilities.

Terror over the TIGER

The majestic beast of the jungle,
found in the south of Asia.

Hunts for the animals,
from Russia to Indonesia.

The ruler of the wild,
Isn't in existence for the long.
It's being hunted

It's number is hitting the extinction going.

Many of their species are already extinct,
The tigers are no more spread wide.
Just taking their life for our good,
Not thinking of their side.

Their habitat is also taken,

Even their last hopes are being broken.

The only hope left,
is our participation.
To stop illegal,

माँ खुशियों का रास्ता!!

उन! मोतियों जैसे आँसुओं को,
पीछने वाली प्यारी माँ।
अपनी गोद में जन्मत दिखाकर,
परियों के सपने दिखाने वाली माँ।
अपने ही दिल को बहलाकर,
हमारा दिल खुश करने वाली माँ।
हमें दुख में देखकर,
खुद को अधूरा कहने वाली माँ।
अपने घर में खुशियाँ देख कर,
खुद खुश हो जाने वाली माँ।
गलत राह पर चलते को,
सीधा करने वाली माँ।

माँ सिर्फ एक शब्द नहीं,
माँ भगवान का रूप है दूजा।
इनके जैसी कोई नहीं,
यह मंदिर मस्जिद की है पूजा।
दिल से कोई न चाहे तुमको,
जितना माँ तुम्हें चाहती है।
माँ की हमेशा करो तुम इज्जत,
क्योंकि तुम्हें इज्जत दिलाने वाली भी माँ कहती है।
प्यार के इस सागर में दूब कर,
तब तक तैरो जब तक न मर जाओ।
अपनी इच्छाओं को भूल-भूलाकर,
सीधा माँ के कंठ लग जाओ।
सीधा माँ के कंठ लग जाओ।

Our Possession

The world is a mirror
that portrays what you love
In the darkest terror
it shows what you lose.

Why this world isolates us
from everything we possess
Should I call this is a partiality
or take the courage to face the reality.

This is what philosophy proves ?
that we are too poor
to possess things we care
and do things we don't dare.

Life is so unfair
It takes away everything we care
Like the rain falls
It takes a second to lose all.

Everyone has a role
everyone has a place
But the one who realises his own.
Is something that is quite rare.

Everyone lives a life
but no one can hear one cry.
The deep voice inside
is never able to take your side.

Should I listen to my heart
or should I listen to my mind.
It feels as if I am lost
in a world that is not mine.

Life

Life never gives you
the path that you want to choose.
It just comes out of blue
and you never know, what to do.

Curiosity and Imagination
always take control of you.
And you are never in control
of what is happening to you.
Sometimes good things happen to you
Like a popcorn pops in front of you.
But everytime something bad
is always waiting for you.

Silence always tends to shut you
Sadness always looks to fill you.
